

Oak Ridge Announces New Central Territory and Additions to Sales Team

June 28, 2007

Oak Ridge Investments, LLC, is pleased to announce the addition of a new Central territory and several additions to its sales team. Mike Sandow was recently promoted to Senior Vice President with responsibility for sales and client services for the new Central territory. Mike was previously a Vice President and Regional Sales Representative working in partnership with Mary McManus in the Eastern Territory. Mike joined Oak Ridge in 2005, and was previously a Vice President and product manager at Scudder Investments. Tom Kelly, Vice President, who previously supported Jim Babson in the Western territory, will now work in partnership with Mike in the Central territory. Tom joined Oak Ridge in 2000 and was previously with Calamos Investments.

Additionally, Tom Powell, CIMA[®], and Dan Fellows have joined Oak Ridge, each in the role of Vice President and Regional Sales Representative. Tom Powell will work in the Eastern territory in partnership with Mary McManus, Senior Vice President, while Dan Fellows will work in the Western territory in partnership with Jim Babson, Senior Vice President. Tom Powell joins Oak Ridge from First Trust Advisors where he was a Vice President responsible for sales of SMA's and ETF's in the Northeastern United States. He was previously a sales representative with Fortis/Assurant Employee Benefits and an internal sales consultant at Van Kampen Investments. Dan Fellows previously worked as an Internal Sales Consultant at Van Kampen Investments and as an Investment Associate at Scudder Investments.

According to Mike Harrington, President of Oak Ridge, "These changes and additions to our sales and client services capabilities bring our resources in line with our expanding client base and marketing opportunities. Mike Sandow has done a great job for us and we congratulate him on his promotion. We are also pleased to have Tom and Dan join our firm."
